THESE CLASSES FILL BOTH UNIVERISITY CORE AND PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS (3–23.0 hours overlap)

- The Spanish and Portuguese Department requires a minimum of 18 hours of upper-division major credit to be taken in residence at BYU for this degree program. These hours may also go toward BYU’s 30-hour residency requirement for graduation.
- Meet the foreign language residency requirement.
- Grades below C- in professional education courses or content courses will not be accepted in the teaching major or teaching minor. Teacher candidates must have a cumulative GPA of 2.85 in teaching major/minor courses to qualify for student teaching.
- Teaching Minor: A teaching minor in another subject is strongly recommended. Teaching opportunities in public schools may be significantly reduced without a second teaching subject that a teaching minor provides.

The department strongly recommends that all majors participate in an extended (at least two continuous months) and intensive language and culture experience in a Spanish-speaking country or area.

A student should complete this requirement by:

1. Residency abroad (may include a Spanish LDS mission, attendance at a foreign university, an advanced exchange program, or similar intensive foreign residence).
2. Participating in BYU Study Abroad Programs in Spain or Spanish America.
3. Participating in individual or group-arranged internship programs abroad as approved by the department.

Students unable to participate in one of these programs must spend at least one year (two semesters) in the United States. Please see the department secretary or the Foreign Language Student Residence Office (3086 JFSB, BYU, Provo, UT 84602 [801] 422-3765).

BA in SPANISH TEACHING (555422)
2012–2013

THE DISCIPLINE:
The Spanish and Portuguese romance languages and literatures dominate the Iberian Peninsula, major parts of Africa, and the southern portion of the new world from Mexico to the Magellan Straits. These languages, spoken by over 450 million people in twenty-one countries, provide a wide spectrum of cultural, linguistic, and literary variety. Spanish represents a vibrant literature that stands at the forefront of twentieth-century excellence and innovation. It is a linguist's paradise of dialects, rapid change, and development. Such breadth—plus some 20 million speakers within the borders of the United States itself—gives multiple opportunities for developing skill in the spoken language, as well as in listening, reading, writing, and translation. Studying the Iberian roots of the population and learning about the people's perceptions of life also brings greater understanding of their values and their struggle for identity. A Spanish or Portuguese major makes for a demanding, intriguing, and pleasurable experience.

CAREERS:
The field of teaching has always provided good employment opportunities for Spanish majors. In addition, opportunities for both Spanish and Portuguese have been found in government service (translation, U.S. State Department, CIA, FBI, Border Patrol, Intelligence agencies, NSA, USAID), business, social work, airlines, banking, etc. Many majors go on to professional schools (law, medicine, dentistry, business, etc.), while a liberal arts background is advised. A strong minor or second major in the employment area is strongly advised.
