PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS (74–91 total hours, including licensure)

- This is a closed major requiring application to the program. Application forms are available in the Humanities Advisement Center (1175 JFSB) and the English Education Office (4186 JFSB). Students cannot apply until they have completed at least 9 hours of English major core courses.
- Students must complete the GE Foreign Language option even if the Advanced Math option has already been completed.
- The English Department requires a minimum of 24 hours of English major course work to be taken in residency at BYU for this degree program. These hours may also go toward BYU’s 30-hour residency requirement for graduation.
- Grades below C- in professional education courses or content courses will not be accepted in the teaching major or teaching minor. Teacher candidates must have a cumulative 2.85 GPA in teaching major and teaching minor courses to qualify for student teaching.
- Engl 195, Introduction to the English Major, is recommended.
- Because upper-division English courses require substantial writing, students should complete their Engl 295 before beginning their first upper-division courses, preferably in the second semester of their sophomore year.
- Engl 276R is prerequisite to Engl 329, 377, 378, 379, and 423. All are prerequisite to Engl 478R.

Complete a GE Foreign Language Culminating Course:

English majors must complete a GE Foreign Language culminating course, even if an Advanced Mathematics option has already been completed. If a student has no prior foreign language experience, they will take four semesters to complete the culminating course. Check the University Core requirements for courses approved as the culminating course.

- Complete the following core courses:
  - a. Because English is a writing-intensive major, students are strongly encouraged to take a first-year freshman college-level writing course regardless of their AP test scores (Wrtg 150 or Phi 150). 3.0

understanding, and evaluating their experience and their reading and (2) of sharing their insight with others. In keeping with the longstanding ideals of a liberal arts education, the English Department aims to cultivate in its students those foundational skills in writing, awareness, and judgment upon which lives of wisdom, service, and an ever-increasing love for learning might be built.

CAREERS:
A firm grounding in the liberal arts combined with English education courses and courses from the McKay School of Education prepares students for the same professions as the English major.

THE DISCIPLINE:
The English major provides a detailed knowledge of the English language and literature written in English. English majors approach language and literature as a source of knowledge and aesthetic pleasure, a mode of encountering and evaluating diverse minds and attitudes, a vehicle for art and action, a means of historical understanding, and a source of spiritual insight. English majors use writing as their primary means (1) of knowing, understanding, and evaluating their experience and their reading and (2) of sharing their insight with others. In keeping with the longstanding ideals of a liberal arts education, the English Department aims to cultivate in its students those foundational skills in writing, awareness, and judgment upon which lives of wisdom, service, and an ever-increasing love for learning might be built.
