Minor, Double-Major, or Approved Supporting Course Work Required for Spanish Majors

All Spanish majors are required to complete either a minor, a second modern foreign language (upper-division courses only), Latin, Greek, English (beyond the GE requirement), linguistics, classical civilization, Latin American history or geography, Spanish history or geography, humanities, anthropology of Spain or Latin America, comparative literature, or other areas approved by the department chair.

Note: Non-teaching majors who do not wish to complete a formal minor may substitute at least 15 hours of courses from among the following related fields: second modern foreign language (upper-division courses only), Latin, Greek, English (beyond the GE requirement), linguistics, classical civilization, Latin American history or geography, Spanish history or geography, humanities, archaeology of Spain or Latin America, comparative literature, or other areas approved by the department chair.

Note: Teaching and non-teaching majors also must meet their minor requirement by completing 15 additional hours consisting of elective Spanish courses or (strongly recommended) a combination of Spanish electives and interdisciplinary work.

The discipline of teaching has always provided ample opportunities for students in Spanish majors. In addition, opportunities for both Spanish and Portuguese have been found in government service (translation, U.S. State Department, CIA, FBI, Border Patrol, Peace Corps, NSA, USAID), business, social work, airlines, banking, etc. Many majors go on to professional schools (law, medicine, dentistry, business, etc.), where a liberal arts background is advised. Spanish or Portuguese makes for a demanding, intriguing, and pleasurable experience.
