PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

- The Spanish and Portuguese Department requires a minimum of 18 upper-division major hours to be taken in residence at BYU for this degree program. These hours may also go toward BYU’s 30-hour residency requirement for graduation.
- Meet the foreign residency requirement.
- The Department of Spanish and Portuguese strongly recommends that StDev 317, a 1-credit-hour course, be taken at the end of the sophomore year or the beginning of the junior year. Because liberal arts degrees provide preparation in a variety of useful fields rather than a single career track, this course is recommended to help liberal arts students focus on specific educational and occupational goals and to identify the career options or educational opportunities available to them. The course will introduce them to the resources needed for accessing information about graduate schools, internships, careers, and career development. Students will learn basic employment strategies, including the steps necessary for obtaining employment related to their own specialty.

Minor or Option:
- Complete a minor from any department (approximately 16–21 hours), OR complete an additional major (approximately 30–60 hours). OR complete 15 hours of courses from among the following related fields: a second modern foreign language (upper-division courses only), Latin, Greek, English (beyond the GE requirement), linguistics, classical civilization, Portuguese or Brazilian history or geography, humanities, archaeology of Portugal or Brazil, comparative literature, or other areas approved by the department chair.

Note: Latin American Studies majors or minors: Port 321, 339, 345 or 355, and 441 or 451 meet requirements for both the Portuguese major and the area studies minor. Only one of these courses may be doubled-counted (applied to both the major and the minor). Students wishing to complete a Portuguese major and one of these area studies minors must take an additional 6-9 hours chosen from the approved electives for either major or minor. Consult the department and the advisee center for clarification of the choices available to you.

Complete the following prerequisite courses:
- Port 101 First-Year Portuguese 4.0
- Port 102 First-Year Portuguese 4.0
- Port 201 Third-Semester Portuguese 4.0
- Port 211R First-Semester Conversation 2.0

And complete one course from the following:
- Port 202* 4th-Semester: Reading & Comprehension 4.0
- Port 315 Intermediate Grammar, Reading, & Culture 3.0

Note 1: Students with foreign residence experience should take Port 321.
Note 2: Prerequisite courses may be waived for those having sufficient proficiency with the language.

Required:
- Complete the following: Port 321* Third-Year Grammar & Composition 3.0
- Port 322 Third-Year Grammar & Composition 3.0
- Port 339* Intro to Portuguese & Brazilian Literature 3.0
- Port 441 Survey of Portuguese Literature 3.0
- Port 451 Introduction to Brazilian Literature 3.0

- Port 355* Brazilian Civilization 3.0 (Prerequisite: Port 321 or equivalent)

Complete 18 hours from the following—courses taken above will not double count:

*THESE CLASSES FILL BOTH UNIVERSITY CORE AND PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS (6–21 hours overlap)
Strongly Recommended: Students planning to go on to a graduate degree in Portuguese should consider taking Port 326, Span 477 and a second modern foreign language at the 200-level with a B or better.

Foreign Language Student Residence
The Foreign Language Student Residence provides live-in opportunities for students in Portuguese. A twenty-four-hour-day Portuguese rule assures participants intensive use of the language, under the direction of native speakers. See the department secretary at 3190 JFSB for information.

Language Skills Development
A program to improve and monitor all language skills at each level of course work has been developed by the department and a final oral proficiency examination is required of all graduating seniors. Writing skills in Portuguese courses will advance from short assignments and short messages in 100-level courses to original short themes in 200-level classes. Papers in the language at the 300-level and more extensive research and vocabulary and full control of structures at the 400-level will complete the program.

Minor, Double-Major, or Approved Supporting Course Work Required for Portuguese Majors
All Portuguese majors are required to complete either a minor (from any department in the university), 15 hours of approved supporting course work, or a double major.

Teaching Majors who do not wish to complete a formal minor may substitute at least 15 hours of courses from among the following related fields: a second modern foreign language (upper-division courses only), Latin, Greek, English (beyond the GE requirement), linguistics, classical civilization, Portuguese or Brazilian history or geography, humanities, archaeology of Portugal or Brazil, comparative literature, or other areas approved by the department chair.

A double major is an acceptable alternative to a minor.

Foreign Residency
The department strongly recommends that all majors participate in an extended (at least two continuous months) and intensive language and culture experience in a Portuguese-speaking country or area:

- Residency abroad (may include a Portuguese LDS mission, attendance at a foreign university, an advanced exchange program, or similar intensive foreign residence).
- Participating in BYU Study Abroad Programs in Brazil or Portugal.
- Studying in individual or group-arranged internship programs abroad as approved by the department.

Students unable to participate in one of these programs must spend at least one year (two semesters) in the Foreign Language Student Residence, pledging to use only Portuguese within the residence. Prerequisite to this experience is Port 201 or its equivalent; any exceptions must be approved by the department. For further information contact the department secretary or the Foreign Language Student Residence Office (3086 JFSB, BYU, Provo, UT 84602 [801] 422-3765).

THE DISCIPLINE:
The Spanish and Portuguese romance languages and literatures dominate the Iberian Peninsula, major parts of Africa, and the southern portion of the new world from Mexico to the Magellan Straits. These languages, spoken by over 450 million people in twenty-one countries, provide a wide spectrum of cultural, linguistic, and literary variety.

Studying the Iberian roots of the population and learning about the people’s perception of life also brings greater appreciation for the values and their struggle for identity. A Spanish or Portuguese major makes for a demanding, intriguing, and pleasurable experience.

CAREERS:
- Opportunities for Portuguese have been found in government service (translation, U.S. State Department, CIA, FBI, Border Patrol, Peace Corps, NSA, LISIA), business, social work, airlines, banking, etc. Many majors go on to professional schools (law, medicine, dentistry, business, etc.), where a liberal arts background is advised. A strong minor or second major in the employment area is strongly advised.

CAREER STRATEGIES:
Business—management, sales/marketing, human resources, marketing research, advertising, finance, insurance, lobbying with business firms, insurance companies, bookstores, marketing research, museums, travel agencies, advertising agencies, real estate. Complete business minor, get related experience, earn leadership role in campus organizations, take advertising courses, take computer courses.

Education—teaching, research, administration, student affairs in colleges, universities, adult education, professional, and graduate schools. Obtain PhD for most teaching and research positions, develop one or more concentrations (linguistics, history, law, sociology, literary criticism), gain related experience, secure internship in area of interest.

Government—staff positions, congressional staffs, lobbying with federal and state governments, federal agencies including FBI, USIA, Commission on Civil Rights, State Department, DOE, FCC, Foreign Service, Federal Municipal Archives, National and State Endowments for the Humanities. Learn federal, state, and local job application process.

Translation/Interpretation—writing, editing, technical writing, journalism, advertising with publishing and insurance, newspapers, advertising agencies and professional/trade organizations. Serve on college newspaper staff; develop excellent writing and desktop publishing skills; take courses or minor in journalism, English, or advertising; get related experience, join professional organization.

Social/Community Services—staff positions or research for nonprofit organizations, immigration services, social services, public interest research groups, museums, libraries. Develop excellent verbal and written communication skills; gain related work experience, acquire master's degree in Library Science.
