BS in PSYCHOLOGY (735420) MAP Sheet
Department of Psychology
For students entering the degree program during the 2014–2015 curricular year.
Students completing this major qualify to do probation work, junior-level social work, and employment interviewing. An excellent choice for graduate programs.

At least 36 of the total major credits must be 300-level or above. (Students can enroll in 500-level courses on a space-available basis.) The Psychology Department requires a minimum of 23 hours of psychology major credit to be taken in residence at BYU for this degree program. These hours may also go toward BYU’s 30-hour residency requirement for graduation.

A maximum of 13 hours may be taken as Independent Study (only 8 of which may count as departmental residence hours).

THE DISCIPLINE:
The Department of Psychology offers a program designed to (1) increase the understanding of human behavior, (2) develop skills for applying such understanding, and (3) expand the frontiers of knowledge through student-faculty research and other scholarly activity.

RESEARCH OPPORTUNITIES:
Contact the Psychology Department for this information.

HONORARY SOCIETIES AND CLUBS:
BYU sponsors a chapter of Psi Chi the National Honors Society in psychology and Psychology Association.

PSYCHOLOGY ASSOCIATION FINANCING:
Many students work up to 20 hours per week. Some find employment on campus and occasionally junior and senior students obtain teaching or research assistantships.

INTERNSHIPS:
Academic internships are available and encouraged. Academic credit is arranged through Psych 399R.

Note: Students are encouraged to complete an average of 15 credit hours each semester or 30 credit hours each year, which could include spring and/or summer terms. Taking fewer credits substantially increases the cost and the number of semesters to graduate.
