THE DISCIPLINE:

Photography majors work in many venues and genres, including portraiture, advertising, fashion, architectural photography, journalism, editorial publishing, stock photography, conservation and photographic finishing. Other opportunities are available in fine art, education, medical, travel, and marketing photography. Photographers typically work in-house, on a contract basis, or as entrepreneurs in their own studio.

NEW STUDENT APPLICATIONS:

Students wishing to be admitted to the Photography program for Fall semester should:

1. Declare themselves a pre-major with the College Advisement Center, D-444 HFAC.
2. Enroll in the freshman core and complete the following prerequisite courses: DES 111, 115 and DESPH 116.
3. Apply to the major by the April 1st or August 1st application deadline.

Transfer Students

Transfer students applying for admittance to the Department of Design are asked to participate in a portfolio review by area faculty. Prospective transfer students should contact the faculty advisor listed below to arrange a review. Upon acceptance into the department, students are placed at the appropriate level of study at the discretion of the area faculty.

Note: Students may apply to the photography program no more than twice. Admission to the department does not guarantee admission to Brigham Young University.

TALENT AWARDS

All students are encouraged to apply for department Talent Awards by the February 1st deadline.

BA WITH LICENSURE OPTION:

Photography majors may also become licensed as K-12 art and design educators through the Art Education licensure program in the Department of Art. There are many opportunities for teachers with a photography background. The licensure program prepares students for these opportunities through a series of courses including student teaching. Please review the Art Education major requirement or contact the college advisement center. Note: This is NOT a second major.

DEGREE PROGRAM ADVISEMENT:

Students should contact the college advisement center located in D-444 of the Harris Fine Arts Center, or call 801-422-3777 for information concerning undergraduate programs in the Department of Design.

Program coordinators are also appointed to counsel students about program objectives, course content and sequence, career goals, and other matters pertaining to their major field of study. The advisor for this major is:
