<td>President, Board of Trustees, and Administrative Officers</td>
<td>The significance of the academic costume is determined especially by the sleeves and hoods. Doctors wear the round bell sleeve; the gown is faced down the front and barred on the sleeves with black velvet or color indicating the degree; the doctor’s hood is large. The doctor may choose to wear the gold tassel on the cap. Masters wear the long, closed sleeve, with a slit near the upper part of the arm; the master’s hood is of more moderate size. Bachelors wear the long or pointed sleeve. The color of the tassel indicates whether the degree is in the field of arts (white), fine arts (brown), music (pink), or science (golden yellow).</td>

Ronald A. Rasband

During His earthly ministry the Savior reached out to the one: a child, a leper, an aggrieved father, an afflicted woman. And He charged His apostles and prophets to do the same. Such personalization seems daunting today as members of the First Presidency and Quorum of the Twelve—Christ’s representatives on the earth—attend to an ever-expanding worldwide Church. Who, then, can they call on to assist? The revelatory answer given is to “call upon the Seventy . . . instead of any others” (Doctrine and Covenants 107:38).

As the Senior President of the Quorums of the Seventy, Elder Ronald A. Rasband has become a key attendant, tasked with leading and organizing the Seventy to assist the Twelve in propa-gating the gospel and managing the Church throughout the world.

From his early childhood it seems Elder Rasband has been prepared “for such a time as this” (Esther 4:14). He grew up with kindhearted parents and friends in a humble home in Salt Lake Valley’s Cottonwood neighborhood. A sixth-generation member of the Church, the young Ron Rasband hadn’t ventured to the outside world until his service from 1970 to 1972 in the Eastern States Mission, which he termed a “rough and tough” place. He then returned home to study business at the University of Utah, funding his own schooling.

At school he caught the eye of the beautiful Melanie Twitchell, and they became good friends. After a time they decided, according to Sister Rasband, to “go out together because we were such great friends.” Their marriage has been blessed with five children and twenty-two grandchildren.

During his senior year at the university Ronald Rasband was befriended by the high councilor assigned to their young marrieds ward—one Jon Huntsman Sr. The successful businessman proffered his surprised young friend a position as a salesman in Ohio, eight months before graduation.

A bit of a homebody, Ronald Rasband reluctantly discussed the offer with his wife, who encouraged him to be adventurous, saying, “I’ll let you call your mother every day!” So he accepted the job. It was just eleven years later that he became president and chief operating officer of Huntsman Chemical Corporation.

His gift for leadership has also manifested itself in the Church. Before his call to the Seventy in 2000, Elder Rasband held numerous Church positions, including Temple Square missionary guide, bishop, member of the Church’s Sesquicentennial Committee, and president of the New York New York North Mission.

Responding to the example of the Savior, Elder Rasband has spent his life ministering to the one, such as finding a way to consistently supply a specialized protein mixture to help a desperate young boy afflicted by PKU (phenylketonuria)—half a world away.

It is an honor to have Elder Ronald A. Rasband, Senior President of the Quorums of the Seventy and an especial witness and minister of Christ, at our commencement exercises today.
DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY

Meihwa Tanielle Bench Alvarez
BA, Brigham Young University–Hawaii, 2007
Major: Biochemistry
Dissertation: Exploration of the Low-Molecular Weight Proteome of Tissue and Serum with Applications on Disease Biomarker Discovery

Lauren Alyssa Barnes
MS, Brigham Young University, 2010
BS, Brigham Young University, 2008
Major: Marriage and Family Therapy
Dissertation: The Effect of Economic Distress as Mediated by Negative Marital Interaction on Parental Involvement as a Predictor of Child School Engagement
