In 1983 he was called to serve as president of the Italy Rome Mission, so he returned to Italy with his wife and young family—seven children, ages nine months to eleven years. Elder Cardon, whose ancestors joined the Church in Italy in the early 1850s, feels blessed to see a temple of the Lord now nearing completion in Rome. Never one to stop learning, at the age of fifty-three he earned his MPA from Harvard, where he was named a Littauer Fellow in recognition of academic performance and service to the school and community. He has also served on the boards of several philanthropic organizations and a think tank.

As a Seventy and while in an Area Presidency, Elder Cardon served the humble, faithful Saints of the Africa West Area. Now, as an assistant executive director in the Priesthood Department, he serves as the editor of Church magazines. He has eight children, all married to wonderful eternal companions, and the current count of grandchildren is thirty-eight.

Elder Cardon says, “It is always a rich experience to be with the sons and daughters of God, to love them, to laugh with them in good times and to cry with them in times of sadness, and in all times to feel the blessings and strength of the Lord.”

CRAIG ALLEN CARDON

Elder Craig Allen Cardon lives a life of single-minded dedication to the Lord. “I learned how to work from my father, how to pray from my mother, and how to recognize the influence of the Holy Ghost from both of them,” says Elder Cardon, who grew up in Mesa, Arizona, and has been a member of the Church’s Quorums of the Seventy since 2006.

As a high school football player, Craig had daily summer practices from 6 a.m. to 9 a.m. and again from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. Though most of his teammates rested between practices, Craig worked for his father doing construction in the Arizona sun. “The only accommodation my father would give me was letting me get to work late,” he laughs. Those long days, though tiring, instilled a dedication that would shape his lifelong work ethic.

Craig left a spot on the University of Arizona freshman basketball team to serve two and a half years on a mission to Italy, also leaving behind his high school sweetheart, Deborah Louise Dana. Though the two made no commitments, they wrote faithfully—until Craig noticed his heart and mind were diverted from the work. So he sought his father’s counsel.

The now treasured response, coming just months before his father passed away, said, “Son, I don’t know what the answer is for you, but I do know how you can get an answer from the Lord.”

The young Elder Cardon fasted, asked the Lord’s blessing, and then wrote Debbie to let her know she would be receiving fewer letters. “I intended to give the Lord everything I had while on a mission,” says Elder Cardon.

Debbie admired and respected his devotion. She was still available when he came home, and after one semester together at BYU, the two married in 1970. They reared their family in Gilbert, Arizona, where Craig expanded the family business as an entrepreneur after he graduated from Arizona State University in accounting.

In 1983 he was called to serve as president of the Italy Rome Mission, so he returned to Italy with his wife and young family—seven children, ages nine months to eleven years. Elder Cardon, whose ancestors joined the Church in Italy in the early 1850s, feels blessed to see a temple of the Lord now nearing completion in Rome.
