Postlude

Ariel Peterson, Carillon
Elder Steven E. Snow was called in March 2001 as a member of the First Quorum of the Seventy of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. He served from 2007 to 2012 as a member of the Presidency of the Seventy. Currently he is Church Historian and Recorder as well as executive director of the Church History Department.

“Having always had an active interest in education, he has an accounting degree from Utah State University and a juris doctorate from Brigham Young University. ‘I have felt there was no better cause than furthering opportunities for education among our children and young adults,’ says Elder Snow, who has served as president of a school board, chair of the Utah State Board of Regents, and chair of the Western Interstate Commission for Higher Education.

In 2012 President Obama appointed Elder Snow to the advisory council on Faith-Based and Neighborhood Partnerships. He is the first Latter-day Saint to have a seat on this council.

People often tell Sister Snow how much they enjoy working with Elder Snow because he ‘gets it.’ His love, leadership, and friendly nature leave people feeling valued. Sister Snow says Elder Snow loves meeting new people and learning from their experiences.

We thank Elder Steven E. Snow for his extraordinary service and are honored to have him as our commencement speaker today.
George earned a master’s degree in theology from Harvard and a doctorate in philosophy of law from Oxford University. He has received numerous honorary doctorate degrees.

George often voices his conservative political views through writing, and his byline has landed in many scholarly and journalistic outlets, such as the Harvard Law Review, the Yale Law Journal, the New York Times, the Wall Street Journal, and the Washington Post. He has authored and coauthored several books, including Making Men Moral: Civil Liberties and Public Morality (1993) and What Is Marriage? (2012).

Through First Things, a political journal and blog, George shows that religious faith has a place in shaping public conversation and public policy. George tackles tough topics and makes them accessible to political laymen.

Promoting cooperation among people of faith is a high priority for George. “I regard it as part of my vocation as a scholar and as a Christian,” he says. This year he received awards for his work from Muslim, LDS, and evangelical Protestant organizations. George said these honors mean more to him than others because promoting understanding and cooperation among believers is such an important part of what he does.

As a professor, George mentors students searching for something more in their lives than their own self-interest. “He leads people to understand that permanent truths about the world and the human condition exist and that real freedom can’t be had unless it is grounded in those truths,” says Archbishop Chaput.

For his sharp thinking and abundant influence and for being an educator, leader, devout Catholic, truth seeker, and supporter of family values, Brigham Young University is pleased to confer upon Robert P. George the degree of doctor of law and moral values, honoris causa.
“We’ve had thirty-nine years of happy marriage,” President Samuelson replied, “and I hope you understand the dynamics. My favorite kind of Jell-O is the kind she puts before me.”

Dr. Samuelson graduated from the University of Utah with a medical degree and a master’s degree in educational psychology. After a fellowship at Duke, he returned to the University of Utah to work as the assistant dean of admissions and as a faculty member at the medical school.

“He’s darn smart,” said colleague and former University of Utah president Chase Peterson. “That lets him do more in an hour that the rest of us can do when we muddle along slower.”

“Medicine is fundamentally a mission of service,” President Samuelson said, reflecting on his chosen profession, “and service is what Jesus wants us all to be doing.”

In 1990 he became a high-level administrator at Intermountain Healthcare, and just four years later he was called as a member of the Seventy of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, serving as president of the Church’s Europe North and Utah North Areas, as the Sunday School general president, and as a member of the Presidency of the Seventy.

At BYU he was well loved by students, who showed their affection by shouting “Whoosh, Cecil!” after every successful Cougar basketball free throw, to which he would give a thumbs-up. The ice cream called Whoosh, Cecil! has become a campus favorite.

The Samuelsons now serve as president and matron of the Salt Lake Temple and enjoy time with their family—especially their grandchildren.

For his extraordinary service to BYU, for his furthering of the profession of “the Healer’s art,” and for his service as a faithful Church leader, Brigham Young University is pleased to confer upon Cecil O. Samuelson the degree of doctor of education and Christian service, honoris causa.
DOCTORAL DEGREES

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY

Andrew P. Brown
MS, Brigham Young University, 2011
BA, Metropolitan State University of Denver, 2009
Major: Marriage and Family Therapy
Dissertation: The Relationship Among Male Pornography Use, Attachment, and Aggression in Romantic Relationships

Jerevie Malig Canlas
MS, Brigham Young University, 2012
BA, Brigham Young University–Hawaii, 2008
Major: Marriage, Family, and Human Development
Dissertation: The Influence of Family Relationship Satisfaction and Perceived Work-Family Harmony on Mental Health Among Asian Working Mothers in Singapore

Patrick Bartholomew Dillon
BS, Brigham Young University, 2010
Major: Civil Engineering
Dissertation: Shear Strength Prediction Methods for Grouted Masonry Shear Walls

Mark Jeffery Jensen
BS, Brigham Young University, 2010
Major: Chemical Engineering
Dissertation: Energy Process Enabled by Cryogenic Carbon Capture

Adam Kenneth Johanson
MS, Iowa State University, 2009
BS, Brigham Young University, 2007
Major: Physics and Astronomy
Dissertation: Radio Emission Toward Regions of Massive Star Formation in the Large Magellanic Cloud

Lance Morgan Moses
BS, Brigham Young University, 2007
Major: Chemistry
Dissertation: Fluorescence Imaging of Analyte Profiles in an Inductively Coupled Plasma with Laser Ablation as a Sample Introduction Source

Joshua Robert Novak
MS, Texas Tech University, 2012
BA, Anderson University, 2010
Major: Marriage and Family Therapy
Dissertation: A Longitudinal Study of Therapist Emotion-Focused Therapy Interventions Predicting In-Session Positive Couple Behavior

Serena W. Peterson (Yuan Wen)
Major: Chemical Engineering
Dissertation: The Effect of Microstructure on Transport Properties of Porous Electrodes

Lexie Y. Pfeifer
BS, Brigham Young University, 2011
BA, Brigham Young University–Idaho, 2005
Major: Marriage and Family Therapy
Dissertation: Facilitative Implicit Rules and Adolescent Emotional Regulation

Eric Blaine Quist
MS, University of Southern California, 2010
BS, Brigham Young University, 2004
Major: Electrical and Computer Engineering
Dissertation: UAV Navigation and Radar Odometry

Travis Michael Rampton
BS, Brigham Young University, 2010
Major: Mechanical Engineering

All candidates listed for graduation will be awarded degrees subject to completion of requirements.
DOCTORAL DEGREES

Chad Isaac Rogers
BS, University of Utah, 2006
Major: Chemistry
Dissertation: Optimization of Nonadsorptive Polymerized Polyethylene Glycol Diacrylate as a Material for Microfluidics and Sensor Integration

Felix Ruben Jimenez Rondan
MS, Brigham Young University, 2011
Major: Physiology and Developmental Biology
Dissertation: The Biology of Claudin 6 (Cldn6) in the Developing Mouse Lung

Timothy John Ruggles
BS, Brigham Young University, 2011
Major: Mechanical Engineering
Dissertation: Characterization of Geometrically Necessary Dislocation Content with EBSD-Based Continuum Dislocation Microscopy

Reza Asgharzadeh Shishavan
Major: Chemical Engineering
Dissertation: Nonlinear Estimation and Control with Application to Upstream Processes

Gajendra Shrestha
MS, Brigham Young University, 2010
Major: Biology
Dissertation: Exploring the Antibacterial, Antioxidant, and Anticancer Properties of Lichen Metabolites

Dean Keith Stolworthy
BS, Brigham Young University, 2009
Major: Mechanical Engineering
Dissertation: Advancing Biomechanical Research Through a Camelid Model of the Human Lumbar Spine

DECEMBER 2014 GRADUATES
Mark Jeffrey Acerson
BS, Brigham Young University, 2009
Major: Chemistry
Dissertation: Synthesis of 4’-Ester Resveratrol Analogues, Chromium Trioxide Oxidation of Terpenes, and Synthesis of Mimics of (-)-Engelrin A

Pankaj Aggarwal
Major: Chemistry
Dissertation: High-Performance Polymer Monolith for Capillary Liquid Chromatography

Justin Colonial Bagley
MS, University of Alabama, 2008
BS, University of Alabama, 2004
Major: Integrative Biology
Dissertation: Understanding the Diversification of Central American Freshwater Fishes Using Comparative Phylogeography and Species Delimitation

Bryce Douglas Bunting
MS, Brigham Young University, 2011
BS, Brigham Young University, 2006
Major: Instructional Psychology and Technology
Dissertation: Being Transformed by Being a Peer Mentor: An Examination of High-Impact and Transformative Peer Mentor Experience

Debolina Chatterjee
Major: Chemistry
Dissertation: Simple, Label-Free and Non-Instrumented Analyte Quantitation by Flow Distance Measurement in Microfluidic Devices

Mark Tyler Wilkinson Ebbert
MS, University of Utah, 2012
BS, Brigham Young University, 2007
Major: Biology
Dissertation: Role of Epistasis in Alzheimer’s Disease Genetics

Anneke M. Garcia
BA, Montana State University, 2004
Major: Instructional Psychology and Technology
Dissertation: Analyzing the Instructional Methodologies and Ideologies Underlying English As a Foreign Language Textbooks in China and Evaluating Their Alignment with Assessments and National Standards

Stewart Grover Gardner
MS, Brigham Young University, 2005
BS, Brigham Young University, 2003
Major: Microbiology
Dissertation: Studies of PhoU in Escherichia coli: Metal Binding, Dimerization, Protein/Protein Interactions, and a Signaling Complex Model

Natasha Marilyn Iri Gillette
MPA, Brigham Young University, 2000
BS, Brigham Young University–Hawaii, 1998
Major: Educational Leadership
Dissertation: Faculty-Student Interaction and the Educational Outcomes of Native American College Students: A Comparison of First-Generation and Continuing-Generation Students

Basseem Bishara Hallac
BS, Brigham Young University, 2010
Major: Chemical Engineering
Dissertation: Kinetic Experimental and Modeling Studies on Iron-Based Catalysts Promoted with Lanthana for High Temperature Water-Gas Shift Reaction Characterized with Operando UV/Visible Spectroscopy and Fischer-Tropsch Synthesis
Melissa Ellen Smith Hansen
BS, Brigham Young University, 2011
Major: Physiology and Developmental Biology
Dissertation: The Role of Ceramides in Mediating Endotoxin-Induced Mitochondrial Disruption

Ammon Ikaika No Kapono Hepworth
MS, Brigham Young University, 2010
BS, Brigham Young University, 2010
Major: Mechanical Engineering
Dissertation: Conflict Management and Model Consistency in Multi-User CAD

Cary Ann Johnson
MA, Brigham Young University, 2004
TESOL Certificate, Brigham Young University, 2001
BA, Adams State University, 1998
Major: Instructional Psychology and Technology
Dissertation: Holding Hands and Drying Tears: Effectiveness of Student Employees in Promoting a Successful LMS Implementation

Chad A. Jones
BS, Weber State University, 2010
Major: Chemistry
Dissertation: Ion Structure and Energetics in the Gas Phase Characterized Using Fourier Transform Ion Cyclotron Resonance Mass Spectrometry

Supriya Singh Kanyal
Major: Chemistry
Dissertation: Fabrication, Characterization, Optimization and Application Development of Novel Thin-Layer Chromatography Plates

Kamyar Keyvanloo
Major: Chemical Engineering
Dissertation: Preparation of Active, Stable Supported Iron Catalysis and Deactivation by Carbon of Cobalt Catalysis for Fischer-Tropsch Synthesis

Moses Lemon Banda Khomme
MPA, Brigham Young University, 2009
Major: Educational Inquiry, Measurement, and Evaluation
Dissertation: A Desk Study of the Education Policy Implications of Using Data from Multiple Sources: Example of Primary School Teacher Supply and Demand in Malawi

Jonathan Leo Krein
MS, Brigham Young University, 2011
BS, Brigham Young University, 2008
Major: Computer Science
Dissertation: Replication and Knowledge Production in Empirical Software Engineering Research

Aaron Dudley Lewis
MS, Brigham Young University, 2011
