Class of 2016

SIGNIFICANCE OF THE ACADEMIC COSTUME

The significance of the academic costume is determined especially by the sleeves and hoods.

Doctors wear the round bell sleeve; the gown is faced down the front and barred on the sleeves with black velvet or color indicating the degree; the doctor's hood is large. The doctor may choose to wear the gold tassel on the cap.

Masters wear the long, closed sleeve, with a slit near the upper part of the arm; the master's hood is of more moderate size.

Bachelors wear the long or pointed sleeve. The color of the tassel indicates whether the degree is in the field of arts (white), fine arts (brown), music (pink), or science (golden yellow).

Commencement Speaker

CRAIG C. CHRISTENSEN

Elder Craig C. Christensen was sustained as a General Authority Seventy of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in October 2002. At the time of his call he was serving as a member of the Fifth Quorum of the Seventy in the Utah South Area.

Elder Christensen was named a member of the Presidency of the Seventy in August 2012. He currently has supervisory responsibilities in the Utah North, Salt Lake City, and Utah South Areas. He also assists Elder Quentin L. Cook in supervising the Central America Area and Elder Ronald A. Rasband in supervising the South America South Area.

As a General Authority, Elder Christensen served as president of the Mexico South Area from 2003 to 2007 while living in Mexico City. He has also served in various departments and assignments at Church headquarters, including as executive director of the Priesthood and Family Department.

Other Church callings include full-time missionary in the Chile Santiago South Mission, president of the Mexico City East Mission, counselor in a branch presidency at the Provo Missionary Training Center, bishop, high counselor, and elders quorum president.

Elder Christensen graduated from Brigham Young University with a bachelor's degree in accounting, having also played center on the BYU football team. He went on to earn a master of business administration from the University of Washington. Over the years he has been a visiting instructor of business and religion courses at several universities, including Brigham Young University.

At the time of his call as a General Authority, Elder Christensen was a self-employed businessman in the retail automotive, insurance, and real estate development industries. He previously worked as an executive with several privately owned companies and with an international accounting and consulting firm based in San Francisco. He has served on several business and volunteer boards and with various charitable organizations.

Of his life experiences, he says, "I've learned that the Spirit really teaches us and those we teach. In any calling, we need to look for what the Lord would have us do."

Elder Christensen and his wife, Debbie Jones, are the parents of four children. In their family they have emphasized getting spiritual exercise through family devotionals and scripture study. Added to that, Elder Christensen has had his own routine of spiritual development. "Over time," he says, "that process of reflection and searching the scriptures has strengthened me and built my testimony."
